IN MOURNING.

The White City Draped for the Dead Firemen.

The Flags of All Nations on the Buildings at Half Mast.

Night of the unidentified World's Fair Fire Victims Buried—Two Hundred Laborers and Teamsters at Work on the Ruins of the Building.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 15.—A spectacle which no man ever dreamed of seeing in the United States presented itself to the visitors Friday evening when they passed through the gates. The exposition was in mourning for the victims of the cold storage calamity.

From every flag pole on all the buildings in the fair grounds on the north terrace of the park and the forestry building on the lake shore south, from the eastern side of the manufacture building to the Cottage Grove avenue gates of the midway plaza, flew and drooped the flags of all nations, half-mast low, to half-mast in silent memory of the heroic firemen and others who suffered and died at duty's call.

The burial of all that remains of the eight unidentified firemen Friday was made in commemoration of the exposition's tribute to them by the lowering of the flags.

Nearly 200 laborers and teamsters were at work on the five ruins Friday morning removing the decaying goods, the charred timbers and mass of piping which obscured the men in their search for more bodies which may be lying under the debris.

A repelling odor comes continually from underneath a pile of wreckage, and it is feared that other bodies will be unearthed. The customs inspectors kept a watchful eye on all the bonded wines, ales and liquors which were brought out. Much of it is unbroken and the salvage will consist largely of the loss to the owners and exhibitors.

When daylight came an inspection of the big buildings, the roofs and exhibits was made to see what damage had been done by the electrical storm, which raged all through the night. The roofs withstood the torrents of rain better than was expected, only a few minor leaks being found. The damage to exhibits was light. A telephone instrument was burned out in the administration building and a star on machinery here was struck by lightning, falling to the ground, but no one was injured.

Although he has been ill for some time, he has regularly attended to business. There has been a slight run on the bank during the past few days. It is thought that this would, together with the condition of his health, was the cause of the self-murder. The bank was closed Friday on account of the tragedy. It is not thought the firm is in any serious financial trouble.

A Man Attacks His Fair Trainer.

World's Fair Groomers, CHICAGO, July 15.—Miss Marcella Berg, the female trainer at Hagenbeck's circus, was fiercely attacked by a half-wild tiger. Before the enraged beast could be torn from the body of his victim the animal was severely bitten and blood was streaming from three ugly-looking wounds in her right thigh. The exciting encounter took place in the arena before a large audience whom strong iron bars of the cage rendered powerless to help the stricken woman. Strong men could do nothing but look. Five of the women fainted at the fearful sight.

An Army of Crickets.

FALL OF THE BASTILLE.

The French People Celebrate the One Hundred and Fourth Anniversary.

PARIS, July 15.—The French nation observed the fall of the Bastille, the anniversary of this event in French history is usually celebrated with rejoicing, the day as one of merriment. Friday, however, was a sombre day, and the usual celebrations were conspicuous throughout the absence. This is due entirely to the feeling engendered by the recent riots.

The municipal council, upon its knowledge of the expense of the celebration has fallen, have taken no part in the observance of the anniversary this year.

The anarchists, with the usual pernicious activity that characterizes them, took advantage of the day to poison the atmosphere, planted dead weeds and other places about the city. The police are busy in searching out and destroying these flaring red posters.

A number of open air balls were held Thursday night, and the police were reported to have dispersed them. The police made many threats of what they intended to do Friday, going so far as to say that they would destroy the city with fire. The authorities are prepared for whatever overt acts may be made.

The original plan of the regiments of troops were held in readiness to fight fire or the anarchists themselves, and it is the general opinion that the anarchists will confine themselves to the streets and houses.

President Carnot, who had been away from Paris on account of his health, has returned to the city. It is customary on the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille for the president to extend clemency to certain prisoners. In accordance with this custom President Carnot Friday released three hundred and nineteen convicts.

Great Britain Wins.

OTTAWA, July 15.—Prof. Macoun, by the dominion government to make a supplemental report upon seal life in Behring sea, has returned from Arctic exploration. His evidence was submitted to the court of arbitration.

Prof. Macoun was appointed to the general impression in Paris when he left as to the decision of the tribunal. Prof. Macoun said: "The general impression is that Great Britain will win." The first trial of the American side in the case of right would have been decided against them had the hearing taken place in an ordinary law court without the British side being called upon to reply."

London Dispensary Closed.

CORONATION, S. C., July 15.—The largest dispensary in the state, the one at Greenville, was closed up under a temporary injunction granted by Judge Norton. The suit against the dispensary is brought by citizens of Greenville on several grounds, but principally on the question of the constitutionality of the law.

The case is to be heard Monday and if this is another defeat for dispensary law like the one sustained in the case before Judge Hudmon similar suits will soon follow all over the state.
